

5 miles outside Ajembukan directly south along the main road (Ajem Road) is a farm. It's one of many farms out here (the Ajembukan province is the "bread basket" for West Djahar). The farm belongs to a farmer named (curiously) Mr. Arthur Ridgewell III.

He can be trusted, and he is known to Remo. You should all meet there to discuss the fate of the the supplies, equipment, arms, and ammo that Peter has retrieved.

Remo knows that Prime Minister Gali Pod-Gurney was of late in Sestuan. Sestuan is south along this road. The road ends at Sestuan. Peter should be familiar with this territory because the Sturdevant Expedition passed through this village and were attacked - before the Coup - by Raul's men.

Still further south is the Delta of West Djahar River, and further down the river is Deltaville.
