

April 16th, 2003

Adam is now on suicide watch at Green Oaks hospital. He might be given extended stay at another hospital for the criminally insane. For now, the court is still deciding if he is guilty or innocent by reason of insanity. This certainly not an open-and-shut case. My therapist has suggested I take another break from work and start seeing him daily.