

May 13th, 2003

The contract came.

I agreed to it.

I signed it, initialed it.

Oh god, what am I doing?

May 17th, 2003

Contact and I met again. He told me to keep my proof of these "special children" written down or recorded. I've started recording every session, hows be damned. He suggested I turn this journal into my recordings of these special children.

I wonder why I'm even doing this? It's not as if I need the money. But... these children interest me. And... and I need to find out if Adam really was insane.