~~I was seeing my patient, Karen Boudreau today, and
And I saw it.~~

~~It looked at me.~~

~~Today, I was seeing my patient Karen, and I noticed something odd...~~

Who am I kidding?

I couldn't have seen what I saw.

NO.

It can't be possible.

I can't begin to describe it. Describing it reas it happened. It gives it form, and meaning. It was just a hallucination it can't be real.

It can't be.

I've noticed that all these "special children"
show signs of violence.
