

Position: Information Gatherer [IG]

At 88, we require IGs to gather information discretely, without compromising the client or the company's nature whilst also ensuring that all traces are covered. The following tasks assess this nature of the work. You should not discuss this with anyone. Should you feel unable to do any/all of these tasks, please state. This will not stand against you in interview.

Acquire the following information, using any resources to your disposal.

88 will not be responsible for any activities you undertake or are involved in during this process.
